

SULEYMAN WELLINGS - LANGMORE

EDUCATION

---

- 2022 - 2021    Harvard Law School
Master of Laws in Human Rights (Frank Knox Fellowship)
- 2017 - 2015    BPP University Law School, London
Legal Practice Course: Commendation.
Graduate Diploma in Law: Commendation
- 2013 - 2010    University of Leeds.
Philosophy BA: First Class Honours

SOLO EXHIBITIONS

---

- 2022    Café X, *The Middle Pillar    San Diego, USA
- 2022    Somewhere Good, *750    New York City, USA
- 2022    Crossings Gallery, *Running in the Rain; exploration of Haitian migration    Allston, USA
- 2021    Monochrome Whitechapel, *B[L]ackground    London, UK

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

---

- 2022    Harvard, *All That We Are, A celebration of Harvard's Black creatives.    USA
- 2022    Harvard, *Harvard and Slavery    USA
- 2021    Matigan Art and Cultural Center, *Black Lives Matter,    Berlin
- 2017    Museo de Arte Occidental, *Abstract: Reaction    Nicaragua

PUBLICATIONS

---

- 2022      Giving Voice to Slavery's Voiceless | Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study at Harvard University      (Online)
- 2022      Harvard Law School Magazine
- 2021      Shado mag,

HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND PRO BONO WORK

---

Sept. 2022 - Present      Legal Fellow at Haitian Bridge Alliance      San Diego, USA

- Funded by Harvard's FXB Department on Health and Human Rights, I am working on a variety of immigrant, asylum and refugee issues that concern local Black and Haitian communities.
- Drafting a report on anti-Black discrimination in the U.S. immigration system.
- Authored a practice advisory note regarding Haitian fear-of-gang asylum claims.

Jan. 2022 – Present      Organising Committee Member at Black Protest Legal Support

- Drafted the legal observer policy statement and advised on general organization strategy.
- Part of an appeals team representing twelve boys convicted of conspiracy to murder that we suspect were the victim of racist profiling.
- Researched U.S. legislation to outlaw the use of rap lyrics in criminal trials, as part of an advocacy team seeking to bring similar laws to the U.K.

Jan. 2022 – Jan. 2022      Independent Clinical Placement at REDRESS

- Through placement at REDRESS over the Harvard January term, I drafted an appeal to the African Commission of Human and People's Rights on behalf of an Emirati woman, who was extraordinarily rendered from Kenya to Somali and Ethiopia.
- Featured in the HLS Clinical and Pro Bono Programs Magazine, 2022

Sept. 2021 – May 2022      Harvard Law School

- Founded and led as Co-President and Treasurer the Harvard United Kingdom Student Law Association.

- Served as student attorney at Harvard Prison Legal Assistance Project.
- Drafted a report on sexual orientation and gender identity for a UN Human Rights Mandate Holder as part of the Harvard Law School Advocates for Human Rights.
- Vice President of Masterclass Workshops at Harvard International Arbitration Student Law Association.
- Recipient of the Titus and Venus Award, for outstanding commitment to Harvard's Black community.

Dec. 2020 – June 2021 REDRESS

- Drafted the first Africa-wide policy review, Guidelines and Technical Paper in respect to enforced disappearance, alongside the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights.

Dec. 2020 – June 2021 HAGAR

- Wrote the French component of a multi-jurisdictional piece of research on the legal and governmental solutions to cyber-sex trafficking.

May 2020 – Sept. 2020 United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

- Researched and drafted the French section of a complementary pathways research project concerning political asylum seekers in Hong Kong.

Mar. 2019 – Sept. 2020 Ezili

- Co-founded an NGO that offers displaced people based in France and Switzerland legal information via a free online chatbot programme.
- Ezili was considered for the 2019 UNCHR NGO Innovation Award.